GENERAL ORDERS.

QUEEN'S REGULATIONS.

A.O. 23.—Soldiers' Passes.

In the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1889, Part II., Section VII., the following will be abstituted for sub-para. (b) of para. 28:—

(b.) Permanent passes up to midnight may be granted—

(1.) To non-commissioned officers below the rank of sergeant.

(2.) To men with one or more good-conduct badges, or who have had no entry in the Company Defaulter Book during the past 12 months.

(3.) To men who, though not qualified under (2), may, in the opinion of their Commanding Officer, be deserving of the privilege.

A.O. 94.—Certificates of Education—Examination Papers.

In the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1889, Part II., Sec. IX., the following will be dded after pars. 85:—

85(a). All examination papers for certificates of education are to be enclosed in sealed envelopes, those for lat Class Certificates being sealed with the seal of the Director-General of Military Education, and those for 2nd and 3rd Class Certificates with the seal of the Inspector of Army Schools of the District. All Staff Officers and Commanding Officers, to whom any packets containing examination papers for any of these certificates are addressed, will, on their receipt, personally examine the seals and envelopes to see that they have not been tampered with, and will retain the packets under lock and key until they have to be issued.

Before issuing the packets to Officers detailed to superintend the examinations, they will again examine the seals and envelopes personally. Should any seals or envelopes have the appearance of having been tampered with a report is to be at once made to the General Officer Commanding, who, after investigation, will forward the same without delay for the information of the Director-General of Military Education.

INSTRUCTIONS, &c.

A.O. 25.—Census, 1891.

1. For the purposes of the forthcoming census, a numerical return will be prepared, on a special form (A), by all corps and depots of the British Army at home and abroad, showing the total number of Officers, Warnatt Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, borne on the strength of the corps on the 5th April next, whether present or absent, together with the required particulars as to nationality, age, and families.

2. A similar return (Form B) will be prepared as regards all Staff and Departmental Officers and men at home and abroad.

and abroad.

3. Troops who may be at sea on the date named will be included in the return of the unit they last quitted.

4. The returns furnished by depots will include all Adjutants and members of the permanent staff of the Auxiliary Forces serving on army engagements within the district.

5. A supply of forms will be furnished to each General Officer Commanding, who will see that they are duly distributed within his command.

6. The wives and families of soldiers married without leave, and residing out of barracks, are not to be included in these returns, as they will be accounted for by the Census Enumerator of the district in which they recide.

included in these returns, as they will be accounted for by the Census Enumerator of the district in which they reside.

7. The returns will be forwarded as soon as possible after the 5th April to the Adjutant General.

8. It must be clearly understood that these returns are quite independent of, and do not supersede, the ordinary census enumeration, which will be carried on at home by the registrars of each district.

9. Every facility must be afforded to the Local Census Officer for carrying out his duty in the delivery and collection of schedules or enumeration books at the different barracks at home stations.

10. An Officer will be specially detailed in each barrack to fill in the necessary particulars in the achedules, and where more than 100 inmates are contained in a barrack, the Officer in question will be eligible for payment in accordance with the scale fixed.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gasette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

War Office, January 20, 1891.

By order of the said Principal Secretary, RALPH THOMPSON.

LIBT CCXXXI. of the Names of Soldiers deceased since 1865, whose Personal Estate is held by the Secretary of State for War for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled.—Effects, 1890-91.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

P. RAVENHILL, Major-General, R.E., Chairman of Committee.

S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfectly aterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be seted so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and ditt for many are, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article libe restored without any freah application of the Blacking, or more than one minet's attention; after five six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rul willy with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the pelish for some time. This Blacking will be ind equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

Sold by all Saddlers, Grocers, and Oilmen.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
